MIAMI (September 5, 2013) – Daniel N. Gonzalez, of counsel to Miami law firm Meland Budwick, P.A., has been elected president of the Bankruptcy Bar Association of the Southern District of Florida. In this role, he will work closely with the board of directors to chart a course for the organization, as well as oversee its various activities including networking and educational events, pro bono program, and other advocacy initiatives.

"I'm honored to be given the opportunity to serve my colleagues and the general public through the excellent work performed by the Bankruptcy Bar Association for the Southern District of Florida," Gonzalez said. "I look forward to a productive and impactful term."

At Meland Budwick, P.A., Gonzalez focuses his practice on bankruptcy litigation, financial restructuring and reorganization, representation of asset purchasers and sellers in both distressed and non-distressed debt situations, creditors' rights, bankruptcy trustee representation, federal and state court receiverships, and complex commercial litigation. He has served in various leadership capacities for several professional and community organizations.

The Bankruptcy Bar Association of the Southern District of Florida, established in 1980, has approximately 500 members and is the largest voluntary association of bankruptcy professionals in the southern district of Florida.
