Meland Budwick, P.A. Managing Partner Eric Ostroff has been included in the inaugural WIPR USA Trade Secrets Rankings 2024.

WIPR's USA Trade Secrets Rankings highlight the nation's leading lawyers and firms in the trade-secrets field, providing a comprehensive guide for businesses seeking legal guidance in this complex and dynamic area of law. The rankings assess law firms and lawyers based on their expertise in key areas of trade secrets law, including litigation, counseling, and policy advocacy. The rankings will also consider their experience in high-stakes litigation, innovative approaches to protecting confidential information, and commitment to staying ahead of emerging challenges.

Eric has extensive experience representing clients in high-stakes trade secrets and noncompete cases. Eric helps businesses protect their trade secrets and proprietary information before and during litigation. Eric's practice encompasses a broad range of business litigation matters, including breaches of contract, business torts, fiduciary duties, unfair competition, and deceptive trade practices. As a thought leader in trade secrets law, Eric frequently writes and speaks on the subject, equipping businesses with the tools they need to address emerging risks and challenges.
