MIAMI – January 15, 2016 – Miami law firm Meland Budwick, P.A. today announced that Eric Ostroff has been named Administrative Partner of the firm. Ostroff has been with the firm since 2010.

> "I look forward to supporting Meland Budwick, P.A.'s ongoing success as a leading Miami law firm," Ostroff said.

Ostroff, a trial lawyer with experience trying bench and jury trials, focuses his practice on business litigation and trade-secrets/noncompete law and litigation. He helps businesses protect their interests and resolve disputes, often in bet-the-company circumstances. He has experience litigating and arbitrating a broad range of business disputes, including cases involving breaches of contract, business torts, business defamation, civil conspiracy, and deceptive and unfair trade practices. He has also litigated numerous real-estate actions.

Throughout his career, Ostroff has received numerous awards and accolades for his legal and community work. He received a bachelor's degree from Emory University and a law degree, summa cum laude, from the University of Miami.
