MIAMI – November 18, 2019 –Meland Budwick, P.A., a Miami-based law firm providing real estate and developer representation, corporate bankruptcy and reorganization, receiverships, financial fraud and Ponzi scheme litigation, as well as complex commercial litigation to a broad array of corporate, fiduciary and individual clients, today announced that Eric Ostroff, a partner focusing his practice on business litigation and intellectual property litigation, served as a Lead Dialogue Leader at this year's Sedona's Conference's Working Group on Trade Secrets' Annual Meeting. The conference is "a nonpartisan, nonprofit 501(c)(3) research and educational institute dedicated to the advanced study of law and policy in the areas of antitrust law, complex litigation, and intellectual property rights." Specifically, Ostroff was invited to be a part of the conferences' Working Group SeriesSM, "a vehicle for those who wish to interact with others interested in tipping point issues in the areas of eDiscovery, complex litigation, cross border discovery and data protection laws, international data transfers, information governance, data security, patent litigation, patent damages and remedies, and trade secrets."

> "It's an honor to be invited to speak at this event alongside the country's top trade-secrets experts to discuss some of the most prescient legal issues in the areas of trade secrets law," said Ostroff. "The Sedona Conference is an opportunity to gather with some of the brightest legal minds in the country to discuss issues, trends and topics that will have the most impact on our clients' cases, and being at the forefront of these issues is well in line with our firm's longstanding commitment to provide our clients with the most knowledgeable legal representation possible."

At the firm, Ostroff is often called upon to represent businesses and individuals in bet-the-company litigation in Florida and across the country. He regularly litigates a broad range of business disputes, including cases involving breaches of contract, business torts, officer/director fiduciary duties, business defamation, civil conspiracy, unfair competition, false advertising, real estate, and deceptive and unfair trade practices. He also represents plaintiffs and defendants in trademark and copyright infringement actions.
