MIAMI (November 3, 2022) – Miami law firm Meland Budwick today announced the firm has been recognized among 2023's Best Law Firms by Best Lawyers. Notably, the firm was recognized in the areas of bankruptcy, reorganization and real estate law.

For the 13th consecutive year, "Best Law Firms" has awarded the most elite and talented law firms across the country through a thorough and trusted data review process, according to the organization's website.

Specifically, Meland Budwick received the following recognition:

National Tier 3
Bankruptcy and Creditor Debtor Rights / Insolvency and Reorganization Law

Metropolitan Tier 1 (Miami)
Bankruptcy and Creditor Debtor Rights / Insolvency and Reorganization Law
Real Estate Law

> "We are honored to continue to receive recognition evidencing our firm's leadership and excellence, as we continue to fulfill our mission and honor our commitment to our clients, colleagues and community," said Eric Ostroff, the firm's managing partner.

Best Law Firms, as described on its website, is an award system for law firms based on qualitative and quantitative data collected through a submission process. Each year, eligible firms are invited to participate in the submissions process through law firm surveys as well as client and professional reference submissions. The data collected from both is combined with overall firm feedback from the individual Best

Lawyers ballots to produce a cumulative score. Scores are tallied and grouped into Tier 1, 2 and 3 rankings.
