Miami | June 16, 2023 – Meland Budwick partner Utibe I. Ikpe is a named recipient of the National Bar Association’s (NBA) 2023 “40 Under 40 Nation’s Best Advocates” award. The award recognizes the top 40 attorneys in the nation, under the age of 40, who demonstrate high achievements in the legal profession, including in advocacy, innovation, vision, leadership and community involvement.

“I am honored and grateful to receive such a distinguished award and to be part of the NBA’s mission to advance the causes of justice, equality, professionalism and community service,” said Ikpe.

Ikpe focuses her practice on commercial litigation. She has experience representing large and small businesses in complicated litigation disputes, including, among others, shareholder disputes, data privacy matters, and trade secret litigation. Ikpe provides invaluable strategic guidance to business clients, and she has wide-ranging experience, having litigated matters in state court, federal court, and arbitration.

In addition to Ikpe’s legal skills, she is an active member of numerous organizations. Ikpe is the Second Vice-Chair of the Florida Bar Business Law Section’s Business Litigation Committee. She is an active member of the National Bar Association’s Commercial Law Section, having served on committees for the BLM internship program and the women’s wellness panel. Ikpe also founded “1960,” an informal networking community that allows Nigerian business lawyers to meet like-minded individuals, share experiences, celebrate culture, and form long-lasting relationships.

“As one of the preeminent bar associations in the world, we have made these awards one of the centerpieces of our association – recognizing the 40 lawyers under 40 who are helping to advance the causes of justice,
