Miami | January 25, 2024 – Meland Budwick partner Meaghan Murphy was named among the Miami-Dade Bar Young Lawyers Section's 40 Under 40 Award recipients.

The 2024 Miami-Dade Bar Young Lawyers Section's 40 Under 40 Award recognizes Miami-Dade County's top legal talent who have displayed professional excellence in their early career. Founded in the early 1900s, the Miami-Dade Bar is the largest voluntary bar association in Florida and boasts over 1300 members under the age of 36 in the Young Lawyers Section.

Meaghan focuses her practice on bankruptcy and complex commercial litigation. She represents business debtors, bankruptcy trustees, and creditors in a variety of Chapter 7 and Chapter 11 proceedings, with an emphasis on representing commercial landlords and tenants. Meaghan also handles a wide variety of complex commercial litigation matters for clients, including pursuing and defending commercial foreclosure matters, contract and business tort claims, and post-judgment asset recovery in matters involving high net worth judgment debtors and financial fraud.
