Meland Budwick, P.A. partner Meaghan Murphy will be featured on a panel titled "Personal Injury Claims in Bankruptcy" at the Florida Law Con 2025 virtual CLE conference on April 4th at 4:15 PM EST, alongside Trisha Redmond, Shareholder at Stearns Weaver Miller, and Aimee Ferrer, Partner at Grossman Roth.

The discussion will explore the intersection of bankruptcy and personal injury cases, examining how personal injury claims are handled when large corporate debtors face mass tort liabilities, as well as the complexities that arise when an individual debtor holds a personal injury claim. This distinguished panel of female attorneys—a blend of both restructuring and personal injury practitioners—will break down high-profile cases, discuss key legal strategies, and analyze the rights of creditors, debtors, and injured parties.

Florida Law Con is a virtual conference offering CLE presentations designed to expand the knowledge of legal professionals across Florida and keep them informed on the latest trends and innovations in the dynamic legal landscape.
