Meland Budwick bankruptcy attorneys and commercial litigators, James Moon and Meaghan Murphy, received a Pro Bono Service Award from Dade Legal Aid – Put Something Back in recognition of their outstanding commitment, dedication, and invaluable service to the less fortunate of our community.

Dade Legal Aid's Put Something Back Pro Bono Project has been connecting Miami-Dade residents with free civil legal services since 1991. Now the largest provider of pro bono services in the state, the program relies on the generosity of attorneys like Jim and Meaghan to assist thousands of low-income residents each year and ensure that access to justice is never out of reach.
