Meland Budwick, P.A. is proud to announce that trade secrets and IP attorney Eric Ostroff has been named to Florida Trend's 2026 Legal Elite Notable Intellectual Property Attorneys list.

This honor recognizes IP attorneys who are helping shape the future by protecting ideas and advancing the businesses, technologies, and industries that drive Florida's economy. Honorees are selected from nominations reviewed by Florida Trend's editors. To qualify, attorneys must have practiced at least 10 years, made a significant impact in their field, and demonstrated leadership through mentorship, professional organizations, and civic or community service.

Eric has more than two decades of experience helping businesses protect their trade secrets and proprietary information, both before and during litigation. He works with companies to identify and protect this critical information. He also represents corporate and individual plaintiffs and defendants in trade secrets and noncompete actions throughout Florida and nationwide.
