Meland Budwick, P.A. is proud to announce that the firm has been named a winner of the Legal Luminaries award for Use of Technology by a Law Firm. The award was presented on October 29, 2026, at the Legal Luminaries Award Ceremony hosted by the St. Thomas University College of Law at the Rusty Pelican in Key Biscayne.

The Legal Luminaries awards recognize lawyers and law firms across several categories. Finalists were selected from nominations, and winners were chosen by a vote from the South Florida legal community. Attorney Jacob Friedman represented the firm at the ceremony.

Meland Budwick embraces a culture of innovation and integrates advanced technology across all aspects of its practice. This investment enhances efficiency and quality and supports cost-effective representation for clients.

The firm's technology capabilities include:

- AI-based legal research tools that streamline research
- Predictive coding and technology-aided review, powered by artificial intelligence, to streamline large document reviews
- Advanced trial presentation software and tools
- Fully digital case management and "paperless" trials

In addition, all Meland Budwick attorneys have completed digital-productivity training through Productive Power.

"Technology is part of how we serve our clients every day. We're honored that the South Florida legal community recognized that investment, and I'm grateful to our attorneys and staff for embracing new tools to deliver efficient, high-quality representation," said Managing Partner Eric Ostroff.
