MELAND | BUDWICK

Emily Ebner

Of Counsel

Phone: 305.358.6363
Fax: 305.358.1221
Email: eebner@melandbudwick.com
Webpage | LinkedIn

Practice Areas:

- Commercial Litigation
- Trade Secrets & Intellectual Property

Emily W. Ebner is a Miami-based commercial litigation attorney and of counsel to Meland Budwick, P.A. She represents clients in business disputes and complex commercial litigation matters, drawing on experience handling high-stakes disputes for sophisticated corporate clients in New York and South Florida.

Emily began her legal career at Kaye Scholer LLP in New York City, where she previously served as a summer associate. Emily assisted in representing high-profile clients, including an international pharmaceutical company in complex products liability litigation. After working in New York for several years, Emily relocated with her family to Miami Beach and continued her practice at leading South Florida law firms.

EDUCATION

- The George Washington University Law School, J.D. With Honors, 1998
  - Senior Articles Editor, The George Washington Law Review
  - Recipient of ABA/BNA Labor and Employment Law Award (awarded for highest exam grade)

    - Honors in Introduction to Advocacy
- The University of Michigan, B.A. With Distinction, 1995
    - Class Honors, Senior Year
    - Pi Sigma Alpha Honor Society in Political Science
    - Sigma Iota Rho Honor Society in International Relations

BAR ADMISSIONS

- Florida
- New York

PUBLICATIONS & PANELS

- Co-author, Forum Non Conveniens Can Be Used To Disaggregate Mass Action Claims, Product Liability Law & Strategy, September 1999, at 1-4.
- Case Note, Panel Finality Finally Comes to the D.C. Circuit, 65 Geo. Wash. L. Rev. 677 (April/June 1997).