He is an excellent attorney. He has deep substantive expertise in the areas of bankruptcy, financial fraud and professional negligence. He is a good communicator, exceptionally responsive and very capable.”

– Chambers USA

Solomon B. Genet, a partner with Meland Budwick, P.A. and general counsel for the firm, focuses his practice on commercial litigation, corporate insolvency and bankruptcy, and financial fraud. Chambers USA describes him as “a terrific lawyer” who is smart, thorough, and very attentive to his clients. “He won’t just accept what they’re asking, he’ll try to figure out the real issue at play.”

Sol represents debtors, creditors, creditors’ committees, equity holders, trustees, and receivers in state and federal insolvency proceedings, often stemming from financial frauds and Ponzi schemes. He also represents high-profile individuals and corporate clients in complex commercial litigation arising from allegations of fraud and bribery.

For the past 9 years, Sol has been recognized by Chambers USA in Bankruptcy Litigation and Bankruptcy/Restructuring in Florida. He is particularly known for his experience in Ponzi scheme litigation and fraud claims.

Prior to joining the firm, Sol served as a Judicial Law Clerk for the Honorable Robert A. Mark, then Chief Judge of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Florida.

In addition to his professional legal experience, Sol was an adjunct professor at the University of Miami School of Law and St. Thomas University College of Law. He has lectured and written on insolvency and real estate issues.

Sol is also involved in professional and community organizations. He is a member of the Board of Directors of Lehrman Community Day School, and is a former: Board member of the Bass Art Museum in Miami Beach, Vice Chair of the Miami Beach Cultural Arts Council, founding member of the Miami-Dade County Mortgage Fraud Task Force, member of the Bankruptcy Court Local Rules Committee, and Chair of the Greater Miami Jewish Federation Real Estate Speaker Series and its annual "Sunset over Miami" event. Sol has mentored law students through the Kozyak Minority Mentoring Foundation, which supports diversity in the legal profession through mentoring programs, networking, and fellowships.

Representative Matters

Financial Frauds and Commercial Litigation

Meland Budwick serves as special litigation counsel to bankruptcy trustee Christina Lovato in Nevada in connection with the $1 billion Ponzi scheme orchestrated by DC Solar Solutions’s founder, Jeffrey Carpoff. The firm is prosecuting all litigation claims held by the trustee and has recovered over $130 million to date, with several actions pending.

Notable settlements include $20 million from Nixon Peabody LLP, $12 million from Ahern Rentals, $11.6 million from KeyBank, N.A., $11.25 million from DC Solar’s outside accountants, $9 million from Heritage Bank, $7.65 million from Alvarez & Marsal, and $5.75 million from a NASCAR subsidiary.

Bankruptcy and Restructuring, Financial Fraud, Commercial Litigation, Creditors’ Rights

Represented the bankruptcy trustee for two South Florida hedge funds that lost $650 million in the $2 billion Ponzi scheme perpetrated by Thomas J. Petters in Minneapolis – then the third-largest financial fraud in U.S. history. Prosecuted over 140 adversary proceedings, including professional malpractice, fraudulent transfer, and conspiracy claims. Secured a $49 million recovery from GE Capital Corporation and a $16 million recovery from BMO Harris Bank. Also served as a member of the Liquidating Trust Committee managing hundreds of millions in claims.

Represented the largest victim in Ponzi scheme orchestrated by Fort Lauderdale attorney Scott Rothstein and his law firm, Rothstein Rosenfeldt Adler, P.A.

Represented the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors and then Plan Administrator for Puig, Inc. and 25 affiliates. Prosecuted a range of claims tied to over $100 million in unsecured liabilities.

Financial Frauds

Represented a California-based fund in bankruptcy proceedings and related litigation, recovering a $60 million judgment and a $17.5 million nondischargeable judgment against the fraud's principal.

Represented the defendant in a $20 million fraud action in the Southern District of Florida stemming from a complex corporate transaction which took place in Eastern Europe.

Receiverships and Assignments

Represented John Arrastia, as FTC Receiver in the U.S. District Court for the S.D. Florida. This court-ordered receivership took control over Florida and Texas-based entities that had perpetrated a telemarketing scheme preying on vulnerable consumers, including the unemployed and uninsured. The Firm represented Mr. Arrastia as he coordinated with the Texas receiver and law enforcement to (among other things) secure the physical and electronic books and records, terminate the fraudulent operations and gather (and eventually distribute) assets for the benefit of creditors.

Served as bankruptcy counsel for 55+ tort claimants, the largest single tort constituency, in the Chapter 11 cases filed by electric scooter company Bird Global, which involved assets totaling less than $100 million and liabilities exceeding $500 million.

Bankruptcy

Served as mediator in the adversary proceeding of J. Stuart Baker v. Howard Storfer and Elida Storfer, resulting in a settlement of all disputes.

Served as mediator in an adversary proceeding in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Florida, where a creditor challenged the debtor's entitlement to a bankruptcy discharge. The plaintiff alleged criminal acts, fraud, and concealment of assets by the debtor. The matter was successfully, consensually resolved at mediation.

Successfully reorganized a Miami-based international freight-forwarding company through the Chapter 11 process, with plan confirmation achieved approximately 120 days from the petition date, where speed and execution were critical to the debtor's operations and stakeholder outcomes.

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Solomon B. Genet was selected by the parties to mediate the adversary proceeding of J. Stuart Baker v. Howard Storfer and Elida Storfer, Adv. Case No. 12-1236-BKC-JKO. The mediation resulted in a settlement of all disputes.

Solomon Genet served as mediator in an adversary proceeding filed in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the S.D. Florida, where a creditor challenged whether the debtor was entitled to receive a bankruptcy discharge. The plaintiff alleged criminal acts and fraud committed by the debtor, as well as the concealment of assets. The matter was successfully, consensually resolved at mediation.

Bankruptcy, Restructuring

Successfully represented note purchaser in bankruptcy filing of obligor-debtor, a commercial real estate owner, resulting in full payment (including interest and attorney's fees) to the client in the millions of dollars.

Successfully reorganized a Miami-based international freight-forwarding company through the chapter 11 bankruptcy process. For various strategic reasons, speed was of utmost importance. The Plan of Reorganization was confirmed approximately 120 days from the Petition Date.

Commercial Litigation

Representation of high net worth individuals in navigating their business and financial interests, including through judicial proceedings, as they arise.

Representation of the defendant in $20 million fraud action in the Southern District of Florida stemming from a complex corporate transaction which took place in Eastern Europe.
