About Michael S. Budwick

Michael Budwick is regularly involved in the most contentious and complex litigation and insolvency matters, having successfully litigated or resolved a broad array of commercial disputes. Michael has handled business and bankruptcy related litigation matters involving lender liability, breach of fiduciary duty, negligence, fraud, aiding and abetting, professional malpractice, equitable subordination, breach of contract, usury and fraudulent transfer. His significant Chapter 11 reorganization experience includes representation of debtors, official committees, creditors and trustees in cases across many industries.

Michael has represented trustees, receivers, creditors and victims in some of the country's largest financial fraud cases. In the $2 billion Ponzi scheme perpetrated by Tom Petters (the third largest Ponzi in U.S. history), Michael served as litigation oversight counsel coordinating strategy and managing several law firms collectively pursuing hundreds of millions of dollars in litigation claims. In the $1 billion Ponzi perpetrated by Jeff Carpoff, the largest fraud in the history of the Eastern District of California, Michael serves as special counsel to the Chapter 7 Trustee, pursuing claims against banks, legal and accounting professionals, and many others. Michael recovered $49 million from General Electric Capital Corp., one of the largest tort recoveries ever against a financial institution for its alleged joinder in a Ponzi scheme. Michael has also recovered in financial fraud cases $20 million from Nixon Peabody LLP, $16.8 million from BMO Harris Bank, $11.6 million from KeyBank, $11.25 million from an international financial advisory firm, $9.6 million from a regional accounting firm, $9 million from Heritage Bank, $5.75 million from NASCAR and

$5.4 million from Ocean Bank, among other seven and eight figure recoveries subject to confidentiality restrictions.

Michael is ranked by Chambers USA (2005-2024) in Band 1 – the highest placement – in the category of Bankruptcy Litigation in Florida based on his restructuring work and the results he has achieved in financial fraud cases. The Guide describes him as “an extraordinary litigator, and a determined and tenacious guy” as well as “a highly skilled lawyer with a niche in financial fraud cases” and “with expertise in advising on Ponzi scheme-related bankruptcy.” The Guide further noted “his expertise in Chapter 11 reorganization matters, with experience representing debtors, trustees and commercial committees.” Michael is recognized in the 2025 Lawdragon 500 Leading Litigators in America Guide.
