About William A. White IV

William A. White IV, an Of Counsel attorney with Meland Budwick, P.A., concentrates his practice on real estate, corporate, and transactional matters.

William advises both developers and tenants in the commercial real estate industry, particularly in lease negotiation, real estate law, refinancing, and purchase and sale agreements. He also handles derivatives agreements and renewal lease agreements relating to headquarters and distribution centers. Moreover, throughout his career, he has managed a spectrum of legal issues associated with construction contracts and claims, construction loans, commercial leases, operating agreements for joint ventures, and developing compliance and risk-management programs.

Prior to joining the firm, he served as in-house counsel for several companies including West Construction and for Konover South Development Corporation, and business affairs counsel for In-Rel Properties.

William's professional involvement includes his membership in the Palm Beach County Bar Association and the Palm Beach Lawyers Chapter of the Federalists Society.
